One Moment in Time

By Donna Weyman

The exact moment that took me to the dining room window blessed me with the most spectacular bit of sunrise. No sun actually showing but the array of pinks and greys, mists and solids along the bank of trees and homes. Even telephone poles could not detract from this mesmerizing view. I watched for a few, then went about my business. Fifteen minutes later, returning to the same room, POOF. The view is still beautiful in itself, but the "window" of brilliance had closed.

All of this is to say, "the moment you are in right now is that moment for you." Brilliance. A force emanating from opportunity. Don't miss it. In your child's face, a voice on the phone, a sleeping pet. Our loved one reaching with a shaking hand, in need or in thanks. A call for help just when you were going down for a rest. Even that list of chores brings an element of joy. Check. Check. Check. Satisfaction or I'll think about that tomorrow. Enjoy. In times when joy is not easily accessible, then we specially praise. And we pray. And we petition others to pray. Don't forget to let others know they are appreciated and being prayed for.

I pray that we never miss the moments. Makes for good conversation-

Let me tell you how good our God is...

So, there was this time....

Psalm 104:34 May my meditation be pleasing to Him, as I rejoice in the Lord.

Bless the Lord, O my soul!
O Lord my God, you are very great!

You are clothed with splendor and majesty,
covering yourself with light as with a garment,
stretching out the heavens like a tent.

Psalm 104:1-2
