LAMENTATIONS 3:22-23

IF THAT'S WHAT IT TAKES

By Donna Weyman

Murmur. Grumble, grumble. Complain. Comment. Criticize. Negative. Negativity. Disdain. Mean spirited, as the list goes on. The angst compiles. Is there actual release in this? No. No release. No relief. Like anger. Eventually building upon itself and actually, adds to our own bad energy.

Murmuring is identified in the bible as the Israelites in the desert. It is identified as sin. Far from being in the actual desert, I have recognized my own self-induced area of whining and complaining. Places and things. But also bringing people into the mix. Murmuring about family and even friends or acquaintances. Yes. Me. It hurts me to admit, but I have reason to bring this up. In my own bad habit, the Lord has given me relief. Bonking me on the head and squeezing my heart to feel one another's pain. He has led me to a place of productivity for Him. In allowing such wasted energy, He has led me to the place of mercy and consideration of why someone may act a certain way. In God's grace, to be agitated at a personality or choice may be the only way the Lord can get my attention. And in pure love, the Lord uses that as a plea for prayer towards one that He loves so much. Including me on all bases. He loves me so much. He is giving me a chance for something good in spite of my own humanness. This is hard to admit to you and myself. The tendency to be judgmental is there beneath this self. So, in all of this I repent and now rejoice.

The Lord has given me an alternative. The Holy Spirit floods my heart and mind with the good stuff In Jesus Name. No murmur. No mutter.

No mutter what!! Let us whisper the Name above all Names. Holy Spirit chemistry heals our hearts.

1 John 1:9 "If we confess our sins, He is righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Isaiah 30:15 "In repentance and rest is your salvation, in quietness and trust is your strength."
