We will once again blossom the Cross at each service and celebrate the Resurrection Joy of our Savior Jesus Christ. Plan to bring fresh-cut or silk flowers to blossom the cross on Easter Sunday. The flowers will be placed on the cross during the beginning of each service to remind us how the cross brings life to our lives.

Mystery Dinner Fundraiser A Success!

The eleven members of the Tanzania Mission Team would like to thank everyone who supported us by attending our Jazz Age Jeopardy Mystery Dinner on Valentine's Day. Special thanks go to Melissa Bungar and Linda Slatt for their invaluable assistance in organizing this event.

Guests fully embraced the spirit of the evening in their finest 1920s attire. After being escorted down the elevator and through a brick-lined back alley, attendees entered the "Cat's Meow Jazz Club." Following a "mocktail" hour filled with mingling and revealed secrets, the Tanzania team served a sumptuous dinner.

However, the evening was interrupted by the discovery of a murder in the club's stockroom. With the help of a private detective and the participation of everyone present, clues were collected, and the culprit was brought to justice after a full confession.

Thanks to your generous financial support, the team has successfully purchased roundtrip airline tickets to Tanzania. However, we now earnestly ask for your prayers as several challenges have put our June trip in jeopardy. These include the closure of Qatar airspace due to the Iran conflict, the potential confiscation of Joy in the Harvest's property for railroad construction, a CDC travel advisory regarding polio outbreaks, and the health of Joy in the Harvest leader Lowell Wertz following emergency surgery.

Please pray for positive resolutions to these situations so that we may go and serve as originally planned.

My Heart Takes Wing

By Donna Weyman

Soaring above, as the Heavens hover just out of actual reach. Yet right there. The joy sprinkles down as rain drops. Refreshing rain. Soaking, to saturate. A kind that seeps in. My heart is a sponge. Even keeping a reserve for quieter times. When I'm alone or just a bit lonely. The slightest squeeze as a word can release refreshment. Just the correct fulfillment to walk me through moments of need.

WHAT! You say what is this magic you speak of? Not magic. It is love and recollection and hope in the future. Not manmade (so to speak). By God's design. His pure reserve for our souls. Again, I hear you say "love"? Sure, then tell me more". Yes, I will. Here it is.

The voice of my grandchildren. The voice of my child. Each has a tone. Especially as I hear the notes. Graaaaandma. Or Grandmama. Baugh. Pap. Grand Father. Grampap. Gam Gam. Pappy. Ma. Mom. Geemaw. Mum.

Over the phone. Face to face. Even written words evoke pleasures that I recall. Pictures. Photos. Artwork. So blessed to have been graced with family. Blessed with prayers to share as we walk our daily lives with Our Father. Daddy. Abba Father. Our Father who art in Heaven. Holy Father. Eternal Father. He is listening. Love sets the tone.

Proverbs 4:23 "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life,"

Romans 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is good and acceptable in the perfect will of God.
